

Getting started with Office 365

If you do not have Microsoft Word (or other Microsoft Office programs) on your computer, your best choice for most of your Clarendon College courses is to use the free Office 365 available through your Bulldogs Mail with Clarendon College. It should have most of the basic features you will need to complete assignments in your courses.

To find instructions on how to download and use these free programs, read this information.