Dear Prospective Instructor:

Thank you very much for your interest in teaching a non-credit short course, workshop or seminar through the Central Texas College Continuing Education Program. I have enclosed a general information sheet and a course proposal form.

The course proposal form will ask you a series of questions to assist you in putting your thoughts on paper to communicate to us what you plan to cover and how you plan to conduct the class. Examples of course descriptions and instructor biographies can be found in our current course schedule. In reading various descriptions, you will notice that if handouts or a book are to be supplied by the instructor, the students are asked to reimburse the cost of such materials to the instructor the first night of the class. Please estimate the cost of handouts at approximately 10¢/page. If students will purchase supplies for a project, please estimate the amount they should plan to spend.

Please tell us how many times you feel the class should meet and which days of the week and hours you prefer to teach. We recommend you limit the number of class meetings to a minimum to adequately cover the content. Adult students are very busy people and are hesitant to commit to a large number of meetings, unless it is absolutely necessary. Shorter classes also help keep course fees lower.

The course outline can be very general at this point; just a single level outline telling us what you will cover the first evening, what you will cover the second evening, etc. This will be sufficient for us to make a decision on offering your course. If you prepare a more detailed outline later for your own use in the classroom, we would appreciate receiving a copy for the permanent course file. Please return the application and proposal(s) as soon as possible. Application deadlines and sessions are listed on the following page.

Thank you again for your interest in our program. We look forward to learning about your course ideas and possibly working with you. If you have any questions about the application process, please call me at 526-1586 or email me at tchavez@ctcd.cc.tx.us.

Sincerely,
Teresa Chavez
Director
